Recruitment of CHEFS to Australia

Edupi Australia (a division of Agnew D'arcy legal) specializes in sourcing skilled trades persons and professionals in the Hospitality and Retail Services Industry.

Many Hotels and Restaurants around Australia are feeling the effects of the current skills shortage in qualified Chef's. It is increasingly difficult to find a good chef, let alone keep them for any real period of time.

Edupi Australia has established a specialist recruitment plan to source Chefs and Cooks who are internationally experienced and qualified (Minimum of three years experience as Commis Chef or higher). Our relationship with Asian and Latin-American Culinary Schools and Education Providers has established an efficient system of overseas recruitment. Our company also sources skilled migrants in many other professions.

Professionals on the Skills Occupation List can obtain a 457 Business Sponsorship Visa allowing them to work with a company for 4 years, after this time the sponsored migrant may apply for permanent residency.

SO WHAT'S THE PROCESS?

STEP 1

To sponsor a skilled migrant from overseas, the sponsor company will need to be approved as a Business Sponsor by the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (DIMA).

STEP 2

Once DIMA are satisfied that the company meets the above requirements for sponsorship then a Nomination and 457 Temporary Business Entrant Visa can be lodged for the person you wish to employ.
